

Description

Cooperación Internacional is an organization founded in 1993 to involve young people in social needs.

The organization has programs, including enriching after-school activities, to help prevent students from falling behind.

The organization also does humanitarian work in disadvantaged countries to strengthen the community's ability to become more self-sufficient. They emphasize volunteer work and education as personal development, individuals will carry what they learn into their careers while also improving society.

Reference Framework

Competences for a democratic culture by the Council of Europe

Values

Human dignity and human rights
Cultural diversity

Attitudes

Openness to cultural otherness
Responsibility
Self-efficacy
Tolerance of ambiguity

Skills

Listening & observing
Empathy
Flexibility & adaptability cooperation

Shared Vision

- ✓ Good citizens
- ✓ Justice oriented
- ✓ Access to knowledge
- ✓ Responsibility
- ✓ Virtuous